Ann Vincent, President

I would like to thank all of our new Book Room Volunteers that have joined us this year. The extra hours that the book store is open make a difference and has definitely shown up in the income each month. I guess it's true: If you open it...they will come! Thank you John Thorpe for training all of our new volunteers and keeping our store open more hours.

Budget cuts by the City have reduced the number of days that the Library will be open. At this point in time, the library will be closed the 2nd and 4th Friday of each month starting in July. Library hours for each day will remain the same. The first Friday scheduled to be closed is July 10th.

BOOK ROOM VOLUNTEERS WANTED

Can you volunteer for a few hours once a week or once a month?

As usual we have almost new hard-bound books and a huge selection of paperbacks to stock up on for your reading pleasure, at a fraction of the cost of new books. Hardbound books are $1.00 and paperbacks and videos are only 50 cents each.

These books are generously donated by Library patrons in our community to be recycled and enjoyed by others and to allow the Friends of the Library to raise funds for additional Library books, supplies and programs for the community. Tell your friends to schedule July 18th for some great book bargains or drop by our book store during the week.

We can always use help at our giant book sales organizing books, keeping them neatly displayed and distributing bags for patrons to collect books in. We can always use your help! It is easy and fun, and a great way to get involved.

During the week our book room contains a small portion of our books collected for the sales. This is another opportunity to volunteer.

We are trying to expand the hours that this room is open to sell books each day to the patrons visiting the library. Volunteers simply enjoy some quiet time reading while supervising the room or can spend extra energy alphabetizing the collection of fiction books on hand to sell. Whatever you enjoy...we have the perfect spot for you. Call Jo Ann Stipkovich at (818) 519-1148 or John Thorpe at (818) 882-3572 and sign-up to help.

BOOK DONATIONS ACCEPTED

Good condition "like new" books should be taken to the front desk of the library to be donated. Children's books are always appreciated and sell quickly. Many parents with children and many teenagers use the library after school and visit the Friends Room to find books.
